

our mission

Our goal is to use the art form of fashion to inspire a lifelong love of creativity, beauty, imagination and self-expression. By providing an environment of support, inspiration, instruction and information, our students will develop skills that will serve them in many arenas. In addition to skill building, we believe that character building goes hand in hand with self-expression and we encourage values of collaboration, cooperation as well as compassion and generosity.

Founder and Instructor

Carmella Weintraub is an artist, fashion and textile designer and has her own fashion and accessories line on carmelladoro.com. She has been in the field for 20 years with her own business and has taught art, textile design to children and youth in Santa Cruz. Her education is in counseling, art, design and fashion design and she has extensive experience in marketing and basic skills in computer programs relating to design. She has been sewing for 60 years.
